

Life Decisions

As an adult,
you get to make your own life decisions.

Thus,
sometimes you
don't always choose
the wisely

Sleep?
Hah. Sounds
like a personal

and a potential problem for my future
self.

The next morning

My head
pounds

Ugh, sakra*,
post self.

You
inconsiderate
bastard

*damn

When people
attempt to converse

Please
stop
interrogating
me.

My brain
can't transcode
your intricate line of questioning
right now.

...I just said
"Hi, how are you?"

Let's continue this profound conversation some time in the distant future...
Whenever I learn to make better life decisions.
